INVITATION TO MAKE CARNIVAL

Come and celebrate who you are and your Wales

The National Eisteddfod arrives in Cardiff this August and we're opening with CARNIVAL. Join us!

How would you celebrate what you love about Wales in a carnival? Get together with friends, work colleagues or neighbours and come together in this big celebration in Cardiff Bay.

The Eisteddfod is teaming up with Butetown Carnival to make a vibrant parade through the Eisteddfod grounds in Cardiff Bay, and there's lots of room for you to join. Bring your street, family, neighbours, band, choir, group, colleagues and friends – dress up, make something to carry, celebrate & dance with us around the streets. We'll end up at the waterside, in front of the national parliament of Wales, The Senedd, for a spectacle with film projected onto colossal waterscreens including a musical contribution from singer and composer Gruff Rhys.

It begins later in the evening on Saturday 4 August, around 22.30 hrs. The carnival will be on foot – so there's no floats or lorries. But we'd love to hear from you. What could you bring? What will you celebrate? How will you dress?

If you join us in Carnifal y Môr on 4 August you are also welcome to parade again in Cardiff at the end of the month as part of Butetown Carnival 2018.

Please let us know if you can come... and tell us what you are thinking of bringing to the party! Got a question? Just ask...

We'd be delighted to hear from you.
