Doniol, agos atoch chi, ychydig yn gandryll, pwerus, diymadferth ac amyneddgar.

Bydd Eddie a Sara yn cynnal cyfres o sgyrsiau sy'n digwydd dros chwe munud. Yn Heb Fod Fan Hyn na Man Draw, mae gan Eddie a Sara gwestiynau am sut mae popeth yn mynd, y cwestiynau mawr anesboniadwy am y byd a chwestiynau bach am gyflwr eich gardd. Mae cymhlethdod yn cymryd amser, mae'n gofyn am leisiau amryfal, sawl lefel o arbenigedd. Hoffen nhw i chi ymuno yn y sgwrs.

Dau artist plwyfol rhyngwladol canol oed yw Eddie a Sara. Crewyd y prosiect gan yr artistiaid Jo Fong a Sonia Hughes, wedi ei ysbrydoli gan ymchwil Frank Bock a Katye Coe. Comisiynwyd Heb Fod Fan Hyn na Man Draw gan Chapter a LAUK Diverse Actions, a'i gefnogi gan Gyngor Celfyddydau Cymru.

Profiad anhygoel! Roedd hi'n rhyfedd ac yn heriol, ond yn bennaf, roedd hi'n lot o hwyl! – Aelod o'r gynulleidfa

Funny, intimate, a bit livid, powerful, powerless and patient.

Eddie and Sara host a series of conversations that happen over 6 minutes. In Neither Here Nor There Eddie and Sara have questions about how it's all going, big questions about the world, small questions about the state of your garden. Complexity takes time, it requires multiple voices, many levels of expertise. They'd like you to join the conversation.

Eddie and Sara are two middle-aged, award-winning, international provincial artists. Neither Here Nor There was created by artists Jo Fong and Sonia Hughes and inspired by research undertaken by Frank Bock and Katye Coe. Neither Here Nor There is commissioned by Chapter and LAUK Diverse Actions, and supported by the Arts Council of Wales.
